

Introductory Statement about the Archivist of the United States

September 17th will mark the third year of commemoration of Constitution Day and Citizenship Day in the Department of Defense. As a special event for 2007, Dr. Allen Weinstein, the Archivist of the United States, will speak and answer questions about the Constitution at the Pentagon auditorium on September 17, 2007, at 10:00 a.m. This presentation will be videotaped and made available for viewing by DoD personnel worldwide.

Dr. Weinstein, confirmed in 2005 as the ninth Archivist of the United States, is a noted historian and author of numerous books and essays. In addition, his numerous public service activities included work in Latin America, the Philippines, and with the UNESCO World Conference on Culture. Link to his complete biography on the next item of "What's New in 2007."